LIBRARY

University PPCU has four faculty libraries with disciplinary collections and professional staff.

H&SS Faculty Library offers library services in the fields of all disciplines taught at various departments with aim to support learning, research and academic writing.

In reading rooms at Piliscsaba and Esztergom campuses you will find spaces for quiet study inspiring you to discover both traditional library material and online resources. Students attending their courses in Budapest can use departmental collections and rich assortment of licenced online databases. In addition, PPCU-students and academics are entitled to register and use free of charge two excellent libraries in Budapest: the famous University Library of ELTE and a special ecclesiastical heritage, a scholarly collection of Sapientia College of Theology of Religious Orders.
