

DAAD scholarships for research 2023

www.daad-hungary.org

Dear Partners at the International Offices,

we are glad to announce you, that our short-term research scholarships for 2023 are available again! You can find all the details at our homepage: <https://www.daad-hungary.org/en/find-funding/>

The programmes are offered now specially for PhD Students, young scientists, university teachers and postdocs, for 1-6/1-3 months. You can do research at any university or research institute in Germany.

The deadline of application is really near (16th January 2023), so it would be great if your students can get these information soon.
